Bud Abbott and Lou Costello meet Frankenstein's Monster (Glen Strange) and the meeting leaves them slightly unnerved in this scene from "Abbott & Costello Meet Frankenstein," a Universal-International comedy release, which opens Sunday thru Tuesday at the Library Theatre.

Miss America Is Confusing With Some of Her Decisions

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—The new Miss America is a welterweight like Jarney Ross or Mickey Walker, he toy bulldog. She is taller, I believe, than Jim London, the ex-heavyweight champion wrestler. Furthermore, Miss Beatrice Shopp, who won the Atlantic City beauty pageant, can drive a tractor, loves "to clean fish," and plays the piano and drum.

And this red-blooded, clean-cut Minnesota farm girl, richer by $16,000 in prizes, has sternly served an ultimatum on Hollywood she will appear in no films unless they let her perform on the vibraharp. All this is very confusing to those who cling to the old-fashioned idea of romantic beauty as symbolized by a pale and lovelorn lady languishing in a high tower as she waits to be rescued. What knight wouldn't feel a bit silly galloping to the aid of a strapping lass who can kill, clean and cook a chicken for lunch and lays down stern terms to the movie moguls?

Philosophers can see in the triumph of Miss Shopp a tribute to the new American worship of the dominant female.

Of her beauty there is no doubt. She is clearly lovely. But twenty years ago what chance of victory would a growing 18-year-old girl have who stood five feet nine inches, weighed 138 pounds, and had a 37-inch bust measurement? None at all. Beauty was admired in smaller packages then.

The victory of this tall, robust, baby-faced brunette who neither smokes nor drinks is a clear confirmation of the belief held by most Europeans that Americans always demand bigger and better things. And there is no doubt that in the United States everything over the years is steadily growing bigger—from our population to our national debt.

But to win her crown the new Miss America had to do more than demonstrate she had more curves than a mountain road. She had to display poise in an evening gown as well as charm in a bathing suit. She had to show cultural talent. And she had to evidence a winning personality. The judges estimated the personality by having breakfast with the contestants. This was a rough test indeed, for what woman feels her personality is best at breakfast time?

By adding tests of character and culture as well as mere physical beauty, the Atlantic City contest shows a new trend in the American mind—its tendency to admire people of multiple talents.

In the old days the American loved a hero with one outstanding virtue or ability. They went to see Babe Ruth hit a home run, and few cared whether he also took out books on Spinoza from the public library. They liked to see Jack Dempsey come back into the ring and knock out Firpo, and if he couldn't dance the rumba—so what? Einstein was admired for his brain. Who worried how he looked in bathing trunks at the beach?

But today a champion is expected to be able to do lots of things. So are politicians. Abraham Lincoln might have trouble getting elected unless he learned to play the guitar.

You have to be an all-around champion now. What chance would Helen of Troy have against Miss Shopp? Could sweet Helen, who launched a thousand ships and made men immortal with a kiss, drive a tractor or play a vibraharp? Could the armless Venus De Milo cook with her feet? and poor old Cleopatra—why she couldn't earn a good conduct medal.

No, the ancient beauties wouldn't win, place or show at Coney Island. Today a prize beauty has to be well rounded, above as well as below the ear.

Work Starts On Route Six

Kane Republican: First blockade of Route 6 west of Kane was detouring traffic over a secondary route through Wetmore and over two unguarded railroad crossings Wednesday—but with special arrangements permitting school buses carrying 200 Ludlow and Hamilton township pupils to Kane to use the temporary construction company bridges.

Only the school buses were permitted through as first of the bridge construction jobs was placed under way by the firm of Guy Trempey and Son, under a contract to the Keeler Construction company.

George R. Anderson, member of the Hamilton Township board of road supervisors, conferred with James Montgomery, general superintendent of the construction this morning to effect the special arrangement for school buses.

Mr. Anderson indicated he was given every consideration in the Ludlow school pupil angle and that the arrangement is temporary but relieves the concern over moving the slow-moving buses over the bad railroad crossings.

The contractor is taking out the old bridge completely but must have a temporary bridge installed to permit construction equipment to cross. On such bridges, the buses will move through until it is impossible to continue by that route. When such a time comes, the long detour—via Sheffield and Chaffee will be effective, or the Bliss Hill job may be complete.

AARON A. PRINTZ

As a good and true friend and for his unfailing optimism and good humor, Aaron A. Printz will always be remembered by the people of Warren and every community where his widespread business made his presence felt.

Mr. Printz was known to all as one of those rare persons who somehow made people feel good when they were around him. He had a cheery word, a smile and a pat on the back for everyone, which combined to make the world look pretty rosy the minute he approached you, regardless of how dark things were at the time. Kindness, courtesy and consideration were cardinal principles with him in his personal and business life.

It is hard to believe that one so alive as was Mr. Printz, one who lived to the limit every hour and who found so much pleasure and satisfaction in life can have ceased to live. He loved his family, his business and especially his store which he helped to found in Warren 52 years ago. He enjoyed the fellowship of people, and when time permitted experienced no greater pleasure than to be planning the annual expedition of the Conewango Fishing Club to Lake Talon, Canada.

Since his illness he has been missed in many circles, particularly the Warren Rotary Club, where he was a charter member, an organization whose basic principle, "Service Above Self," he exemplified to a high degree. He was a charter member of both the Conewango Valley Country Club and the Conewango Club, where he gave freely of his time and service endeavors during their early formative years. He was an honorary life member of the Warren Lodge of Elks, and the last surviving charter member of Franklin Lodge No. 110, and in both these clubs his radiant personality always made itself felt when he found time to visit them.

All of us are going to miss Aaron very, very much. We shall always remember him as he hailed us on the street and in his place of business with his happy smile and pleasant greeting.

The local merchant who suspected he was being handed a counterfeit $10 bill the other day may have had good reason for his caution, since bogus bills of this denomination have been turning up in large number in New York City and elsewhere, resulting in an appeal from federal officials to police in general, and retail merchants in particular, to be on the look out for them; the bill under question in Warren proved bogus, but just for the information of local business men it may be explained that the bogus $10 bills are ostensibly drawn on the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, and are described as Green Seal bills having letter "G" in a circle to the left of the portrait of Hamilton, with F399 or 2388 in small print in the lower right hand corner of the face; red ink lines are drawn on the paper to stimulate genuine silk threads; on the back, inside of the border at the right, are the numbers 1177, 1157 or 1098 in tiny print—and they say the counterfeiters can easily be detected when compared with a genuine bill.

Here's a clipping from Johnny Nelson's column in the Bradford Era, we've been waiting to find space for, and we know Toby Lyon's friends will enjoy it: There shouldn't be any doubt today as to the identity of the Mister Golf of this region of Pennsylvania and New York state. The name's Toby Lyons. He has performed like a champion for two years and his competitive record is a sparkling testament to his ability when the chips are down. The Bi-State Golf Association inaugurated open tournaments in the section in 1947 and the two-year report card of the Bi-State is in itself a testimonial to the Warren professional. Not only has he won many of the tournaments around the region but he also has topped the official open crown for two years. Also consider the fact that he was up near the top with many of the nation's best this summer in the Pittsburgh Dapper Dan, shattered all-time records at Jamestown and Oil City; and then was 11-under-par in retaining his title last Friday at Chautauque.

This And That: "Early Days of Oil," the story of the beginning of the oil industry in pictures, will be published October 11, by Princeton University Press—the author Paul H. Giddens, has included in the book 265 of the best photographs by John A. Mather, the Mathew Brady of oil, and the result is a dramatic history of the infant industry in the Pennsylvania oil region and the people who were concerned with it. Members of the Greek Catholic faith of the area are expected to attend the ceremonies at Erie Sunday at four o'clock when a new flag pole will be dedicated at the grove of St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church. Impressive ceremonies will mark the unveiling of a memorial plaque to 41 Cameron County dead of the two World Wars on the high school lawn at Emporium this evening. Fifty-four students have been accepted for the Penn State Credit Class Center which will begin operations in Bradford September 22 at the Bradford Senior High school. Burton J. Bell, son of Harry Bell, of this city, a former reporter for Warren newspapers, has been named editor and chairman of "The Georgia Engineer," published in Atlanta, Ga., in the interest of "Serving the Architectural and Engineering Interests in the State of Georgia." A combined parish and Sunday school picnic was held yesterday at the Red House area picnic grounds in Allegheny State Park, by members of the Church of Ascension of Bradford. The Department of Forest & Waters exhibit, which was shown down at the Field Day at Irvine last Sunday, will be on display at the Crawford county fair at Meadville next week, Jay Pees tells us. The average American housewife spends 35 percent of her waking hours in the kitchen, according to one expert in the autumn issue of Living Magazine. Art Linkletter will bring his network radio show, People Are Funny to Pittsburgh Tuesday evening with the proceeds to go to the Rheumatic Fever Research Fund of the Children's Hospital. Twenty years ago today, September 17, 1928, the Warren High school Dragons, being feted with a reception tonight at the Marconi Outing Club, defeated Youngsville 19 to 0. Well, hope to see you tonight at the open house and tomorrow at the game!

Johnny Mack Brown who appeared in person at the Columbia theatre Thursday is considerably heavier and looks quite a bit older than he was when we chatted with him on a set in Hollywood while he was making a "western" in 1934. Joie Chitwood and the original Auto Daredevils must be playing in the section—one of their advertising cars was in Warren Thursday afternoon. The outcome of the amazing National League race was probably decided Wednesday evening during a debate in front of the Carver Hotel, with Jimmy Wilson doing most of the talking.

A crowd estimated between 7,000 and 8,000 turned out for the first air meet to be held at the Brokenstraw airport near Pittsfield. Seven planes and a parachute jumper participated in the show, and some 450 persons were taken for rides. . . . District Attorney LeRoy Eddy moved into his new quarters in Rooms 209-210 on the second floor of the Warren Savings Bank building. . . . "Pirates, sudden battle and blood-stained decks and out of the west, majestic, avenging, America's first man-o-war." That was the build up given in the ads for the picture, "Old Ironsides," showing at the Liberty Theater. In case you can't recall, the film starred Wallace Beery, Esther Ralston, George Bancroft, Charles Farrell and Johnnie Walker. . . . Meeting a lot of stiff opposition than had been expected, the Warren high school gridders opened their season by topping Youngsville, 18-0. "Fritz" had the honor of scoring the season's first touchdown for the Blue and White. . . . The Erie United soccer team, in a well played game, defeated the Warren B team, 5 to 2, on Oakview Park field. The lineup for Warren included Dyson, S. Sandberg, Fring, Berglund, Vidlund, Erickson, Lawton, Hagie, C. Sandberg, M. Forslund, G. Uhr. Bill Warr was the referee.

All citizens of Venturatown and North Warren were invited to a meeting in the North Warren Community house to discuss installation of a water system. . . . Oil City romped to a 43-13 triumph over a scrappy Youngsville High grid team. Jerry Geiger, batting champion of the Sunset Baseball League, also was King of Swat for the Moose semi-pro baseball nine. Jerry slammed 48 hits in his 119 trips to the plate for a .403 percentage. Second place honors went to Emory Morrison with a .376 average. . . . Injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Pennsylvania avenue, resulted in the death in Warren General Hospital of Gustaf Saterlund, 72, of Jamestown. Clouds on the horizon: The headlines read: "Peace At Any Cost Anglo-French Plan"; "Czechoslovakia Is Urged To Agree To Deal With Germany."

1938
Quartzite used in the steel industry is obtained by blasting with dynamite after oxy-acetylene torches have burned as far as 20 feet into the surrounding rock.

Girl Scout "Campference" At Camp Edey Next Weekend

The Warren County Council Senior Scouts will be hostess to Senior Scouts from Section I, Region III, September 24-26, at Camp Bird-sall Edey for a "Campference", the first to be held in this section.

Warren county girls serving on the Section I senior planning committee are Miss Jane Rogers, of Warren, and Miss Shirley Stover, of Sheffield.

A guest speaker will be Mrs. Gilbert Emerson, who spoke in Warren last spring. Mrs. Emerson was the leader chosen in 1947 to represent Girl Scout leaders of the United States at the International Girl Scout Encampment in Abolodon, Switzerland. She was chaplaine of the four Girl Scouts from the United States who attended. Mrs. Emerson will tell of her experiences at the Chalet.

Communities will have exhibits of Clothing Kits for Friendship in the Playhouse. This will truly be a "Clothes Line to Stretch Around the World."

The Campference will open on Friday, with guests arriving between 5:30 and 6:30; dinner at 7:00, with introductions of key speakers, unit leaders, etc. At 8:00

COLE HILL
Cole Hill, Sept. 13—Several attended the concert in the West Spring Creek church Sunday evening and reported a fine time. The concert was staged for the benefit of the church and most of the musicians were from the congregation. It would be a good idea that some one sponsor a similar program to fix up the Torpedo community church.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Holmes and children, Alice and Gordon, were visiting relatives near Medina, N. Y., Labor Day.

Ray Woodward, one of the few remaining blacksmiths, of Youngsville, was on the hill shoeing horses at the Howard Eastman farm Tuesday.

Mr. Cox, accompanied by Earl Eastman of the King's farm near Ludlow, was a visitor on the hill Wednesday.

Ed Hallway, of Centerville, agent for the Raleigh C. district was over the hill Wednesday. Mr. Hallway distributes products for the company in three counties.

Letters to the Editor

The Warren Players wish to correct an impression created by publication of the following paragraph in the Thursday edition of the Warren Times-Mirror: "The Warren Players Club has refused to rent the Woman's Club auditorium to Junior Chamber for a Thanksgiving Dance".

The Warren Players has not refused to rent the auditorium. However, inasmuch as a public production is scheduled by Players for December 2-3, the week following Thanksgiving and inasmuch as the set and properties for this show will be on the stage, the Warren Players did refuse the use of the stage for that particular evening.

The Warren Players is a non-profit community group presenting dramatic entertainment as well as offering an opportunity for creative interest in the theatre. For eighteen years it has received the support and cooperation of the community.

It would be patently out of character for the Players to refuse to cooperate with any civic group, such as the Jaycees, whose activities the Players heartily endorse.

Yours truly,
John E. Miner.

Chapter 7

GEORGE, you are staying?"

Cathy asked.

"There just ain't anything I can't do about it," he said.

"Leastways, fr the present anyway. There's that scrap I had with Corbin. I gotta stay 'round so he don't get smart and take it out on somebody else."

"I see."

"Then there are them int'rest payments comin' up in a couple 'o weeks. I can't walk out on them, c'n I?"

"No, you can't."

"So, there y'are. Somebody's gotta take care o' things, and I'm what I c'n see of it, I'm the only one to do it."

She nodded understandingly.

"S-ay, you been outta the house t'day?"

"I . . . I don't think so."

"Get your coat and we'll go get some air. It's a swell night out."

She needed no further bidding. She caught up her basket, rose from her chair, flashed him a smile over her shoulder and went upstairs. When she returned, he was standing in the open doorway, staring out into the night.

They strolled past the house, turned in the direction of the corral. They heard the plunking of a banjo, then a man's voice was raised in song. Mechanically both Cathy and George stopped. The song came drifting toward them.

"I don't think I've ever heard that before," Cathy said.

"Name of it's Harriet," he said.

"A girl taught it t' me. Boy, and could she sing it!" she said.

"They're singing it again," she said.

Harriet, oh, Harriet . . . All the cowboys want to marry Harriet

"Cause Harriet's so handy with a lariat; But Harriet doesn't want to marry yet 'Cause she's havin' too much fun."

"You shoulda heard Pat sing it," George said. "That was somethin' worth hearin'."

"You liked her a lot, didn't you?"

"I sure did."

"Was she . . . is she . . . young?"

"Heck, yes," he said quickly. "Don't imagine she's a day more'n eighteen, if she's even that old."

"Do you know her very long?"

"O-h, sure! Know 'er ever since she was we-ll, since she was about eight, I'd say. She's Joe Carson's sister."

"Joe . . . Carson?"

"Uh-huh. He owns the show, y'know."

"I see."

"Y'know, I've up and quit the show more'n a dozen times, every doggoned time Joe and me had words. If it wasn't fr Pat, b-lieve me, Joe woulda never seen me again after the first time I quit."

"You mean you stayed on because of her?"

"She allus talked me outta quittin'."

She pawed the ground with the toe of her shoe. He watched her for a moment . . . when she stopped, he looked at her questioningly.

"Smarter?" he asked. "Cold?"

"Y-es," she said a bit hesitantly. "Besides, it's getting late and I think I better go inside. You don't mind, do you?"

"Nope," he answered and his casualness made her bristle.

"Good night," she said over her shoulder.

"G'night," he answered.

part of the labor department. Its main offices are in the labor department building. And it had a row of offices on the second floor.

But congress decided to cut down on the amount of money it would let the bureau have.

Since that meant it would have less money to spend, fewer people could be employed in the bureau.

So a number of the bureau's offices had to be closed up. They're standing idle and empty now.

About 10 years ago each government agency handled its own moving. This sometimes ended in a mess.

Gradually, this was changed and it goes like this now:

When some government outfit has to move, it's told when by the government's office of real estate management.

And that office also handles the office of buildings management. The office of buildings management notifies its moving section.

The moving section has to have its trucks and crew of movers at the right place at the right time.

Records of the moving section show that this was done in 1947: Trucks that moved the government around, in and out of the District of Columbia, traveled 3,330,000 miles and hauled 34,510 loads of office furniture, files and equipment.

There were 557 separate moves. Twenty-seven federal departments and agencies were involved in those moves.

UN Mediator and Colonel Shot Down

(From Page One)
The killing was reported to have occurred at 5 p. m. Jerusalem time. Bernadotte had been shuttling for months between the Arab and Israeli capitals in his efforts to bring peace and enforce the truces. He was scheduled to report to the United Nations in Paris next week.

The telephoned message identified the Frenchman as Colonel Staff of the United Nations staff. Count Bernadotte visited Damascus, capital of Syria, yesterday.

While in that city he told newspapermen that both Arabs and Jews in Jerusalem were "trigger happy."

He explained that frequent shooting broke out in the city without either side knowing what it was shooting at.

"It's like this," he said. "They shoot into the dark at night. They snipe by daylight. Excuse me, but it is a most idiotic thing."

Dewey Studying Farm Policy Issue

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 17—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's camp promised an important Republican farm policy statement today after the GOP presidential nominee confers with congressional leaders.

Dewey put farm problems at the top of the day's agenda as Senator Edward Martin (R-Pa.) took word to party workers that the New York governor wants no effort spared to keep the senate under Republican control.

Dewey and Martin conferred yesterday about the prospects of GOP senatorial candidates in nine states.

Martin, who had a key part in mailing down the presidential nomination for Dewey, is a member of the Republican senatorial campaign committee. He said he and Dewey talked about the contests in West Virginia, Wyoming, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Tennessee, Iowa, Idaho and Montana.

dress Monday at St. Moines, Iowa, will confer with farm paper editors tomorrow on agricultural problems which are expected to figure largely in the campaign cross-fire.

His running mate, Gov. Earl Warren, launched his speaking campaign last night in Salt Lake City with an appeal for national unity and political moderation at a time when the world is "beset by fear."

Warren said this year's electioneering drive must be free from the prejudice of party, class or race.

The third party presidential candidate, Henry Wallace, told a Buffalo, N. Y., audience last night that both the Republicans and Democrats are participating in a "profiteering" program.

Wallace said "the leaders of both parties elbow each other out of the way in their rush to ameliorate the condition of the downtrodden corporation."

The Democratic national committee meanwhile indicated it will not start a court fight over the decision of the Louisiana state committee to scratch Mr. Truman's name from the party ballot.

Now the storm warnings are up and—well, never underestimate the power of a woman.

Understand of course, no one's putting the blame for the soot on the solons. They're not importing big bags of the dirty stuff and maliciously scattering it over town from rooftops. The complainants just want council, as the constituted government authority for the borough, to take immediate action—backed up with legal authority if necessary—to get rid of the soot.

Homecoming Celebration Is Big Attraction For Third Weekend Of 1948 Football Season

Two grid tussles on War Memorial Field and a big Homecoming celebration highlight the sports card for the week end in the Warren district.

First of the feature tilts will pair the Warren High School Dragons against Franklin on Saturday afternoon, with the kickoff slated for 2:30 o'clock.

The Homecoming celebration will be held in conjunction with this game under the auspices of the Sports Boosters Association of Warren. Guest guests for the occasion will be lettermen and squad members of Warren's undefeated and untied 1928 team.

Warren High opened the 1948 interscholastic grid season last week by downing Cory, 19-7. At the same time Franklin was flattened, 34-0, by a powerhouse team from Bradford. Ted Marchibroda, ace quarterback for Franklin, was injured in that tilt, and it is not known whether or not he will be able to play tomorrow.

On Sunday afternoon, Warren Red Jacket semi-pros, with one win and one defeat on the record for their first two appearances this season, will take on the Jamestown Legion. The New Yorkers will be after their initial triumph, having lost their first two games to DuBois (6-0) and the Johnsonburg Shamrocks (14-6).

Kickoff for Sunday's tilt will be at 2 p. m.

Heavyweight Is Injured In Ring In Philly

Philadelphia, Sept. 17—(AP)—Bill (Chicken) Thompson, 21-year-old Philadelphia heavyweight, was reported in serious condition today after being knocked out in a fight with Johnny Haynes of New York.

Thompson was rushed to the Naval Hospital last night when he remained in a dazed condition after his knockout by Haynes, three seconds before the end of their scheduled eight-round bout at Toppi Stadium.

Thompson, who weighed in a 183, took a severe beating at the hands of Haynes, thirty pounds heavier, in six of the eight rounds. The Philadelphia was finally felled after 2:57 of the final round by a head blow that sent him partially through the ropes.

Doctors at the Naval Hospital said they would make a further examination of Thompson before announcing the extent of his injuries, but listed his condition as serious.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC

By The Associated Press

The Middle Atlantic League's Shaughnessy playoffs might be all over today had it not been for Bob Hill's ninth inning double that scored two runs and gave Vandergrift a 7 to 5 win over Erie last night.

The Sailors had taken the first three games of the final playoff series and one more would have clinched the Governor's Cup.

Hill, husky Pioneer first sacker, was the whole story of the Vandergrift victory. He tripped in the fourth and Vandergrift got its first run, and had a three-run homer in the fifth.

His game-winning blow that broke a 5-5 tie came with two men out.

The teams meet again tonight at Erie.

CONEWANGO CLUB

The Conewango Club Tenpin Bowling League will open its season Monday, Sept. 27, with eight teams ready for action. The Club alleys will be opened for practice each afternoon and evening, starting Monday, Sept. 20, and the pre-season drills will find a lot of the leggers trying to compromise a golf swing and a bowling delivery.

Neil Culbertson, chairman of the Conewango bowling committee, has called a meeting of team captains for this evening at 5:30 o'clock at the club to complete arrangements for the loop. Other members of the committee are Ray Reed and Monte McClure.

Team rosters will be announced later.

Nat'l Football League Starts

New York, Sept. 17—(AP)—The National Football League opens its 29th season tonight in Boston, three weeks and 12 games after the first kickoff in the rival All-American Conference.

The initial attraction matches the Green Bay Packers against the Boston Yanks in Fenway Park with the Packers favored.

The National League won't get around to playing a full schedule until October 3. Following tonight's contest the next game will be Wednesday night when Detroit visits Los Angeles.

The All-American Conference also has a game tonight. Cleveland's Champion Browns meet the revived Chicago Rockets in Soldier Field. The Browns have won their only two conference games, against Los Angeles and Buffalo. Chicago upset Baltimore after losing to the same clubs Cleveland beat.

The surprising Baltimore Colts made it two in a row last night over the eastern division champion New York Yankees.

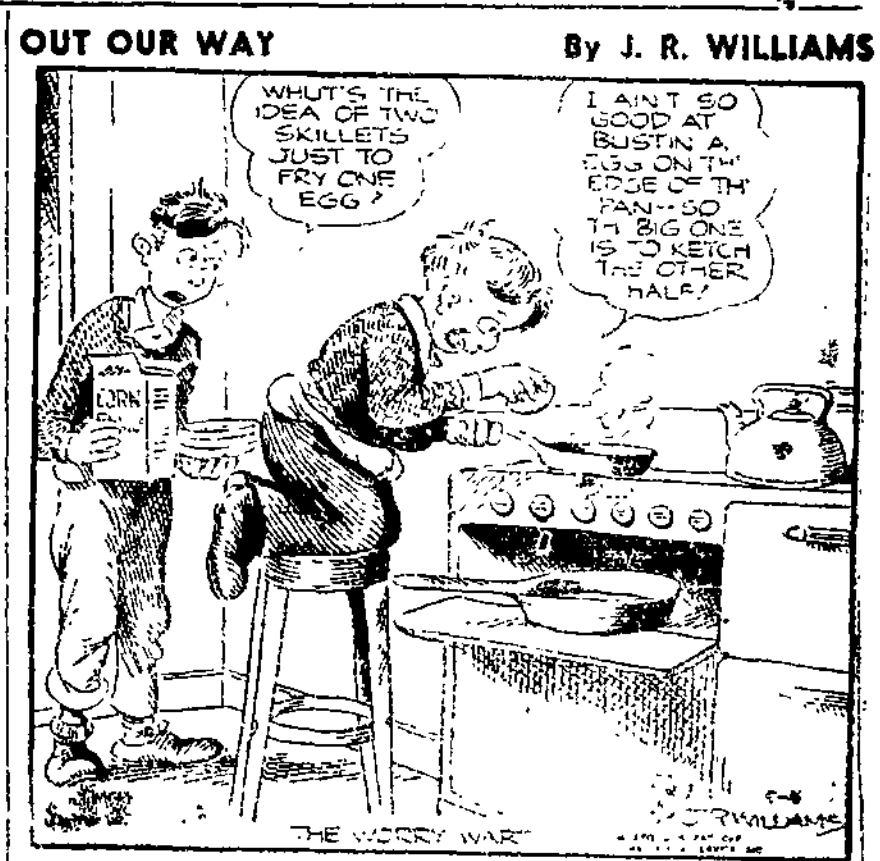

Second No-Hitter For Scranton Boy

By The Associated Press

Twenty-year-old Maurice McDermott hurled the second no-hit no-run game of his career last night to send the pennant-winning Scranton Miners into the Eastern League's playoff finals.

McDermott, who came back to the miners after starting the season with the Boston Red Sox, blanked the Utica Blue Sox, 8-0. This ended the best-of-seven semi-final series 4-1 in Scranton's favor. It was the third no-hitter of the Eastern League season.

Meanwhile, the Albany Senators stayed in the race for the Governor's Cup by defeating the Hartford Chiefs, 4-1, with Southerland Hoover pitching a four-hitter. The Chiefs have a 3-2 lead in that series.

Frederick the Great is said to have made his coffee with champagne—and then added mustard to the drink.

Kinzua Man Agent For Crosley Line

Appointment of R. C. "Dick" Morrison as dealer for his company's cars here was announced today by Powell Crosley, Jr., president of Crosley Motors, Inc., mass producer of lightweight, low-cost pleasure and commercial vehicle.

The showrooms of Morrison Motor Sales will be located in Kinzua, with a formal opening to be held soon.

Crosley cars and trucks will be available as soon as possible, Mr. Morrison states, in announcing his Crosley sales and service organization will employ about four persons.

The Crosley line consists of sedans, convertibles, station wagons, quarter-ton pickup trucks, and a dual-purpose vehicle known as the Sports Utility. Deliveries can be made in a short time, Mr. Morrison says.

Lutherans To Meet Sunday At Titusville

The annual fall rally of the Warren District Luther League will be held in the Immanuel Lutheran church at Titusville Sunday afternoon, with the program beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

The theme for the rally is "Forward in Faith" and is in keeping with the centennial celebration of the Augustana Synod.

The Rev. Walter E. Ohman, pastor of the Bethany Lutheran church of Erie, and clerical advisor of the New York Conference Luther League, will be the speaker for the occasion.

After a light supper at the church, colored slides taken at this year's convention at Grier School in Birmingham, Pa., will be shown.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Leagues in the district to be in attendance at this fall rally.

Lockport Is One Up On Falcons

Lockport, N. Y., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Lockport Reds, thanks to a timely snuffing by Roger Schmidt, are one-up today on the Jamestown Falcons in their best-of-seven series for the PONY League Governor's Cup.

Schmidt's mates came through last night with 15 hits of their own to bowl the Falcons over 9-4 in the first game of the set. The lanky right-hander was never in trouble as the Reds piled up a 4-0 lead after only three innings.

In tonight's second game of the series, Manager Butch Scheffel will send Left-hander Jimmy White to work for the Reds. White had a regular season record of 13 and 10. Marv Olson of the Falcons will counter with Right-hander Amade De Croyat, who finished the season with 13 wins and seven losses.

TIDIOUTE

David Porterfield, of Caracas, South America, was a recent guest of Mrs. Louise Elder. Twenty-one years have passed since David visited Tidouite.

Miss Esther Kinnear, who spent the season at Chautauqua Lake, has returned home.

METZGER-WRIGHT'S

Saloon "Sociability"

To the Editor:

I admit that I don't hang around places where people are drinking enough to know what all goes on at these places. But I do take a peek in when I pass a saloon, and I have not yet found one that even begins to come up to the ad-writer's descriptions of them as "bright, cheerful places where sociability prevails." The saloon customers that I have seen are a pretty glam lot And, as for "sociability," the booze-hoisters seem to have a brand all their own. From Manila, P. I., comes a United Press story of one Ricardo Lorenzo, who "paid with his life for refusing to accept a cocktail." The man who offered it to him was "so angered" when he wouldn't take it "that he stabbed Lorenzo fatally." A peculiar kind of "sociability" these drinkers have, wouldn't you say?

RAGS

"Where should we begin our education of the dangers of alcohol?" is a question many educators are asking. "In what grade in the school?" I think I now know the answer to that question. Begin it among the adults in the homes. Teach the parents some facts. Let them know that what the advertisements say isn't so.

This idea of having our children be so socially acceptable among the sophisticated horde—even if they have to drink to be so... Well, I'd rather have mine be spiritually acceptable among the sanctified host.
